

Exchanging Banners with a Visitor from Holland

In October 2009, the Rotary Club of Inverness welcomed a Rotarian from the Netherlands who was making a tour of the southeastern United States, and took the opportunity for a banner exchange.

The club-to-club banner exchange is a tradition among Rotarians visiting any of the more than 32,000 Rotary clubs worldwide in 200 countries and geographic areas.

Pictured here are Arienne Groenewoud of the Rotary Club of Vlaardingen, Holland, left, with Rotary Club of Inverness president-elect Charles Richer.