

Rotary Club of Inverness awards 4-Way Test essay contest winners from CHS Interact Club

The Interact Club of Citrus High School, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Inverness, conducted an essay contest among its member on what Rotary's 4-Way Test means to them. They wrote about how the 4-Way Test is implemented in their lives Interact students. Winners were honored at the April 19, 2011 Rotary Club of Inverness luncheon meeting.

The three essay contest winners are pictured above. Left to right: CHS Interact club sponsor and honorary Rotarian Michelle Kiddy; the three Winners: Michael Yingst, Savannah Bingham and Paige Weaver; Rotarian and Interact Club advisor David Rom; and Rotary club president Charlie Richer.