

Inverness Mayor Robert Plaisted Named Honorary Rotarian

The Rotary Club of Inverness has named Inverness Mayor Bob Plaisted an Honorary Rotarian in the club, saying he has the heart of a Rotarian.

"Bob Plaisted does so many good things to help the community and especially those in need. He personifies the same ideals that we as Rotarians do," said club President Jim Neal. "Unfortunately, his busy schedule makes it impossible for him to attend enough meetings to fulfill attendance requirements for regular members, so this is the best way for us to honor him and tell the world that he is one of us".

Plaisted is pictured below with club member and 5th Circuit Court Judge Trish Thomas, who administered the oath and presented him with Rotary credentials.
