

Rotary Club of Inverness Sets Up Tables For Friends of the Library Spring Book Sale

The Rotary Club of Inverness members again volunteers with the Friends of the Citrus County Library System to set up the county auditorium for the big Spring book sale, one of big fundraisers and a highlight for readers countywide.

The Rotarians pictured above spent part of a Wednesday morning placing tables in the auditorium according to a plan drawn by the Friends. There are six Rotary Clubs in Citrus County (see www.citrusrotary.org for a list) and all of them help their respective communities by doing things like this project to help others. The Citrus clubs are part of Rotary International with 33,000 clubs worldwide in 200 countries that have 1.2 million members, making it the largest service club in the world.
