

Rotary Club of Inverness Contributes to United Way

United Way Executive Director John Marmish, right, received our $1,000 contribution to the annual campaign from club president Charles Richer. John is also a Rotarian in the Inverness club. United Way is one of the many community organizations to which the Rotary Club of Inverness contributes in an effort to help strengthen and improve our community.

