

New County Administrator Visits Our Club

Citrus County Administrator Anthony Schembri visited the Rotary Club of Inverness on August 12 to share current county news with its members.

He shared his philosophy of efficient government and effective leadership, talked about changes he has made and considerations for the future, and encouraged club members to continue being involved in the community.

Schembri is pictured below, right, with Rotary Club of Inverness President Melanie Hensley.

